1. It is requested that Applicant thoroughly review the specification and revise it to conform with idiomatic English using the usual terminology of the art.
2. The drawings are objected to because the printing at the top of the sheet listing title, inventor name, and attorney docket number must be removed. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.
3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by YOKOTA et al (5,898,539).

Note especially figures 3 and 7. YOKOTA et al shows a floppy disk drive having a case (16) and a disk holder (5). The disk holder (see figures 3 and 7) has a tip portion (not numbered, located at the top of both figures) that is bent in a slanted direction, and which abuts against the inner face of the case. Concerning claim 3, pivot (5f) reads on the listed pivot. Concerning claim 4, it will inherently result in some degree of pushing the inner face upward.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 5 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over YOKOTA et al (5,898,539).

YOKOTA et al shows a floppy disk drive with a holder substantially as claimed.

YOKOTA et al differs in not specifying the material of the holder.

Art Unit: 2627

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to utilize the listed metal sheet. The motivation is as follows: the Examiner takes Official Notice that metal sheet is well known and commonly used for the holders in floppy disk drives. One of ordinary skill in the art would use such a well known and commonly used material where none was specified.
